SUNDAY IS NAMED FOR MOTHERS' DAY

Churches, Schools, and Business Places to Pay Homage to Women of Nation.

Mother's Day, once characterized at "the highest bit of practical sentiment that has ever taken hold of the hearts of men." will be observed throughou nation next Sunday, and Washington has arranged to do its full shar in paying solemn tribute to the devotion and self sacrifice for which motherhoo

A single white carnation, or the favorite flower of the wearer's mother, i the badge of this universal fellowship and thousands of these blossoms will be used as boutonnieres or will form the notif in more elaborate decorative schemes.

Churches of every denomination and in all parts of the city will take notice of the day in their regular services and many ministers will use the suggestion as the theme of their sermons.

At the Calvary M. E. Church, the Rev. John T. Ensor will speak of the duty and reverence due a mother and a special song service will be rendered by the chorus, every member of which will wear a white carnation.

To Have Program. At the Sunday school session of the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, Eighteenth and N streets northwest, the children will participate in a Mothers' Day program. The Rev. Walter Radcliffe, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, also expects to make allusion to the day in his sermor The hotels, large and small, will par ticipate in the observance. At the Wil-lard the 100 vases of flowers will conlard the 100 vases of flowers will contain a predominance of white carnations. The same flower will be used exclusively for the table decorations at the Raleigh, while the Shoreham has ordered 500 of the white blossoms. Several railroads have made it a custom to have carnations on the tables in its dining cars, and to give one to each passenger who ate on the train.

For weeks past the florists have been nursing the growing carnations in order that they may reap a harvest of flowers for the occasion. Z. D. Blackistone said today that he would have fully 10,000 blossoms cut by Sunday morning. As many prefer the red blooms, about half of that number will be of a scarlet hue, but the white ones usually prove the most ready sellers.

prices of the freshest flowers will range from 75 cents to $1.50 a dozen. Those who wish to buy a single flower may get a red one for 10 cents or a white one for 15 cents. While these prices will obtain generally in the florist hops, there will be street venders who will dispose of less perfect specimens for an humble 5-cent piece, an humble 5-cent piece.

But it is not the price one pays for a carnation nor the immaculate radiance of its petals that marks the true celebrant of Mother's Day, according to the idea of the promulgators of the movement. Rather it is the spirit of affection and reverence, born of a sense of evertasting gratitude, that carries one back to that Eigstum when a mother stood between her child and the harsh realities of an unfeeling world.

The movement which resulted in setting aside a day for this peculiar purpose began in Philadelphia in March, 1908, and the second Sunday in May has been observed as Mother's Day ever since.

The practice has spread beyond the national confines into Canada and Mexico, and even continental Europe has begun to catch the spirit of the occasion, and it is only a question of time until the civilized world is joined in

Mark Twains' Tribute To Mother's Day; Writer Observed It Faithfully

NAVY YARD CHANGE

Representatives of Nine Shops Tell Roosevelt Efficiency Systems Are Bad.

Representatives of nine navy yards have submitted to Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt objections to the inaugurating of the Taylor or the Vickers-Mtxim efficiency systems in American navy yards. A delegation of the navy yard men, who have been holding a meeting here, called on the Assistant Secretary and this was one of the subject matters during the course of a discussion of working conditions.

The visitors were told that the Taylor system had not been installed in naval work, and that the department merely was investigating plans which would make for more efficient work. A suggestion was made that nothing further be done by the Government along this line until an investigation can be conducted by the Department of Labor.

Another matter called to the attention of the department by the committee was the opposition of the navy yard workers to the employment of enlisted men in the shops. naugurating of the Taylor or the
